

Assembler

Solar Technology, Inc. (SolarTech) is an ISO-9001:2015 certified manufacturer of high-tech specialized construction equipment used for the management and control of traffic in and around work zones associated with road, highway and bridge construction, maintenance and repair. Defined by reliability it is the oldest manufacturer of portable trailer mounted solar powered flashing Arrow Panels and Changeable Message Signs and conducts all product research, design, development, manufacturing, service and support at its single facility in Allentown, PA. Recognized worldwide for manufacturing high quality, durable, reliable and technologically advanced portable solar powered work-zone traffic control equipment. Solar Tech strives to provide the absolute highest level of service and support, resulting in total customer satisfaction. We are thrilled to extend the opportunity for the best qualified candidate to join our team as an Assembler.

Solar Tech is seeking a committed individual, experienced in manufacturing, to join our team as a General Assembler/Finisher. This role is designed to execute the production of solar boards to produce the highest quality product.

Job Summary:

The General Assembler/Finisher operates various manufacturing equipment, build equipment per work instructions, assist in loading finishing product for shipment, and maintaining a safe work area. This position reports to the Production Supervisor/Production Manager.

Job Duties:

- Build equipment per work instructions as directed by respective Team Lead/Department Supervisor according to established standards.
- Assist in loading finished product onto trucks for shipment
- Ensure departmental equipment is maintained in a clean and safe manner
- Assist in other departments when needed
- Train potential new hires to produce quality products
- Always maintain a safe work area
- Adhere to all work instructions following all quality regulations
- Adhere to established time standards for product production

Qualifications:

- Minimum of 6 months (1 year preferred) in a manufacturing environment performing general assembly operations or sufficient skills as may be demonstrated upon interview
- Must be familiar with manufacturing assembly techniques and equipment
- Must be able to perform at a high-quality standard
- Must be able to effectively communicate with Coworkers/Team Leads, Production Supervisor, and Production Manager
- Must be able to work well with others in a potentially high stress production environment.
- Must be able to understand quality assurance processes
- Must be able to stand for 8 hours per day and be able to lift up to 50 pounds
- Must be able to use basic hand tools

As Reliable As the Sun

Benefits:

- Medical, dental, vision, life insurance, short term disability, long term disability, Paid Time Off (PTO), vacation, and 401k program with employer match
- We have a dynamic culture with our team members who are encouraged to contribute, change, grow, and opportunity for rewards accordingly

As Reliable As the Sun

